

Official Guidelines on Filing Police Complaints & FIR

Category: Police | Page 1

Procedure for Filing a Police Complaint

A formal complaint can be filed by any citizen who has information about a crime.

Steps:

1. Write a formal complaint addressed to Station House Officer (SHO) of local police station.
2. Mention incident date, time, location, detailed facts, accused/witness names, and complainant contact.
3. Submit two copies and obtain official STAMPED ACKNOWLEDGMENT receipt on duplicate copy.

Official Guidelines on Filing Police Complaints & FIR

Category: Police | Page 2

First Information Report (FIR) Procedure (Section 154 CrPC / BNSS 173)

1. Right to Free Copy: Informant is entitled to receive a COPY of the FIR FREE OF COST immediately.
2. Reading Before Signing: Read carefully to verify statement accuracy before signing.
3. Zero FIR: Police must register a Zero FIR immediately regardless of territorial jurisdiction and transfer it to concerned station.

Official Guidelines on Filing Police Complaints & FIR

Category: Police | Page 3

Remedial Measures If Police Refuse to Register FIR

1. Submit written complaint to Superintendent of Police (SP) or Deputy Commissioner of Police (DCP) under Section 154(3) CrPC / BNSS 173(4).
2. Judicial Remedy: File application before Judicial Magistrate under Section 156(3) CrPC / BNSS Section 175 directing police to register FIR.